Measurement record

A value without its method, unit and uncertainty is not a complete result.

ID / quantity measured / place / date

Operator and time zone

Instrument, identifier and calibration evidence

Method, range and units

Conditions and possible influencing factors

Individual observations and raw record

Processing, result and uncertainty estimate

Interpretation limits and independent review

Related photographs and files